Transportation for Community Housing Description:

While many Vail Valley residents own and operate their own vehicles, there are a number of public transportation options available to make navigating around our communities simple.

Local employees and business visitors have several choices for easy transit within the Vail Valley. Options include the ECO Transit and Town of Vail bus systems, a variety of shuttle and taxi services and numerous bike paths traversing amongst and between the core areas of most communities.

ECO Transit operates a bus service between Gypsum and Vail and throughout Eagle County, including to Leadville in Lake County. For information, call 970-328-3520 or visit: <http://www.eaglecounty.us/transit>

Town of Avon's transit system consists of two in-town shuttles, a skier shuttle for access to Beaver Creek Resort, and an evening restaurant shuttle, which connects the Town of Avon and Beaver Creek Resort. Avon Station serves as a regional transit hub providing access to ECO Transit services, which operate throughout the Vail Valley and into Lake County.
